

Biography

Sergeant Matt Anderson

Crew Chief, Aviation Detachment

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown:

School Attended:

Biographical Sketch

SGT Anderson is a 15U serving on the team as a Crew Chief.

Matt Anderson enlisted in the US Army in 2008. He attended basic training at Ft. Knox, KY and advanced individual training at Ft. Eustis, VA. His duty stations prior to joining the Golden Knights were: Ft. Hood, TX and Ft. Bliss, TX. SGT Anderson has deployed twice to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

SGT Anderson's military education includes the Warrior Leaders Course, and the Air Load Planner Course. He has flown over 1400 hrs as a Chinook Flight Engineer.

His awards include: four Air Medals, one Army Commendation Medal with Valor, four Army Commendation Medals, and the Army Achievement Medal.

