

Biography

Staff Sergeant James Reavis

Standardization Instructor, Aviation Detachment
U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Henderson, North Carolina
School Attended: Southern Vance High School

Biographical Sketch

SSG Reavis is a 15U serving on the team as the Aviation detachment's Standardization Instructor.

James Reavis enlisted in the US Army in 2004. His duty stations prior to joining the Golden Knights were: Camp Humphreys, Korea, Fort Hood, TX, Fort Rucker, AL, Fort Bragg, NC one deployment to Operation Iraqi Freedom, one deployment to Operation Enduring Freedom, and one deployment to Pakistan.

SSG Reavis' military education includes the Warrior Leaders Course, Advanced Leaders Course, Air Movement Officers course, and the Aircrew Standardization Instructors Course.

His Awards Include two Air Medals, two Humanitarian Service Medals, two Army Commendation Medals, and the Army Achievement Medals.

