

Biography

Sergeant Shana Greene

Schools NCO, Operations Section

U.S. Army Parachute Team, "Golden Knights"

Personal Statistics

Hometown: Hudson, Ohio

School Attended: Hudson High School

Biographical Sketch

Sergeant Shana Greene is serving on the Team as the Schools NCO.

Sergeant Greene enlisted into the Army more than five years ago and went to Fort Jackson, SC where she completed basic training. Immediately after, she was sent to Advanced Individual Training as a cryptologic linguist at the Defense Language Institute in Monterey, CA.

Throughout her career duty stations have included Schofield Barracks, HI where she served as a cryptologic linguist on two deployments to the Philippines.

Sergeant Greene has been awarded the Army Commendation Medal x 2, Army Achievement Medal x 3, the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, the German Armed Forces Badge, the Expert Rifle Badge and the Expert Pistol Badge.

Shana is in school for her Baccalaureate's in Diplomacy and Military studies. Since learning to skydive in 2013 she has logged more than 250 free fall parachute jumps.

In her free time she enjoys, rock climbing, hiking and riding her Enduro motorcycle.

